

Hopkinsville Kentucky.

THEO. E. BARTLEY, Business Manager.
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1889.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

If the strenuous month should emerge to-morrow and it should be the case, then back for forty days he'll go. For winter has not just begun.

Miss Gubbe visited Clarksville this week. Mr. Buckner is in Louisville on business.

Miss Rita Greenwood is visiting friends in Clarksville.

Mrs. O. of Springfield, Ohio, is visiting Mrs. R. L. Martin.

A. W. Fyfe left Wednesday on an extended Southern trip.

Mrs. G. R. Hickman, of Kenton, is visiting her parents at Bethel Female College.

Mrs. J. M. Bowling and daughter have returned to Clarksville, after a visit to Mrs. H. S. Wood.

Miss Helen Todd has returned from Greenfield, accompanied by her cousin, Miss Laura May Nowe.

Dr. J. B. Jackson, who is in note, is up from his late spell of sickness, and was in the city yesterday.

Mr. Thompson, a prominent attorney of Hopkinsville, was in the city last evening visiting his nephew, Henry Barnett, Esq., of Paducah News.

Mr. James Ware, of Dixon, was in the city yesterday, but he has just started on his way home. He should keep better posted.

A. L. Wilson has returned from a two weeks' tour through the North Western States for a recent oiler house. He reports that his main trip was to the oil fields, and that he was "satisfied" in only two towns and that he was "satisfied" in only two towns.

Denise Barbee, representing the wholesale house of C. A. Litterer & Co., Nashville, dealer in stoves and implements, was in town this week looking for a location to establish a house to handle poultry, eggs and butter on a large scale. He was brought here by correspondence with the Commercial Club and President Bassett spent several days showing him the surrounding country, with which he was very favorably impressed. He was much pleased with Hopkinsville and will in all probability locate here.

This business offers the very finest opportunities for money making in this city and is capable of large development. Our country is particularly well adapted for it, one half for butter making and the other for poultry raising on a large scale, and with a good market to stimulate production the business would soon get to be immense. Several adjoining counties would also help build up the enterprise and with two or more railroads shipping facilities will be first-class. Mr. Landis, if he decides to come, will buy property and do business on a mammoth scale and buy every pound of produce to be had, at market prices. Our people will accord him a warm welcome and every encouragement necessary to make his business a success from the start.

Temperance Speaking.

Luther Benson will begin a series of lectures in this county, on Temperance, next week, as follows:

Hopkinsville, Tuesday night Feb. 6. Crofton, Wednesday night Feb. 6. Casky, Thursday night Feb. 7. Fairview, Friday night Feb. 8. Vaughan's Chapel, Saturday night Feb. 9.

Pembroke, Sunday night Feb. 10. Speaking to begin at 7:30 p. m.

These will be Free Lectures, and all, especially the ladies, are invited to come out and hear him.

Mr. Benson is a lecturer of national fame, and comes with the very highest recommendations.

Buffed Buzzard.

S. R. Boyd captured a buzzard at his farm four miles from the city last week and took from its neck a bell, which was fastened around it with a leather strap. The bird was crippled and unable to fly and is probably the same one shot at by a gentleman in the Bellevue neighborhood in the Christmas. Mr. Boyd took the bell off and kindly placed the buzzard upon the carcass of a sheep, where he was left to enjoy himself. The bell had engraved upon it "M. K. White, Garrettsburg, Ky., 1881." The date was somewhat indistinct but was probably intended for 1881.

An Elongation That Didn't Elope.

Charles Barnes and Miss Annie Morris, who live a few miles north of town, came to this city Wednesday evening on their way to Clarksville to get married. They left in a buggy about midnight, accompanied by several couples of friends; but after going about eight miles they were overtaken by James Morris, a brother of the would-be bride, who after a long parley persuaded the eloping couple to return, promising them that they would be allowed to marry at home. The time for the wedding had not been fixed at last accounts.

Methodist Meeting.

A protracted meeting has been begun at the Methodist church which will continue for some time, perhaps two or three weeks. Able assistance will be soon secured, but for the present the pastor, Rev. Mr. Lewis, himself a very successful revivalist, is conducting the services.

The Cumberland Meeting.

The protracted meeting at the Cumberland and Presbyterian churches has so far resulted in four conversions. The meeting, which is still in progress, will probably close this week.

Wake Williams shot and killed Dave Bethel at Elizabethtown.

THIS AND THAT.

Hogers & Day's Livery Stable.

Fritz's old stand.

Go to A. G. Bush for boots and shoes and save money.

Marcus Young, the barber, is laid up with a severe attack of rheumatism.

Paper sacks for putting up hams for sale at this office, at from 1 1/4 to 3 cents each.

The firm of J. M. Adams & Co., Church Hill, has been dissolved, Mr. A. C. Richards retiring.

An interesting program is being arranged for the Baptist circle meeting at Kelly next month.

Mrs. W. T. Stowe, of Newstead, who has been quite ill for sometime, is improving. Dr. Gaines is her physician.

The sun, which came out Wednesday, made short work of the light snow which fell a day or two before.

The large plate glass to replace the cracked one in the front of the Planters Bank has arrived. It will cost when put in about $150.

Walter S. Mathews in Richard III drew a good house last night, but we went to press too early to prepare a notice of the performance.

Rev. John Moore, col., has sold through his agent Maj. John Phelps, his farm of 80 acres, on the Canton pike, to Mat. S. Major, for $40 per acre cash.

The street names which were painted on the street lamps have about all disappeared. They should be put back and next time nailed to the posts or put on the houses.

Clarence Anderson, the photographer, has on exhibition at his gallery a very fine life-size picture of A. D. Rodgers, manager of Holland's Opera House, just completed.

Miss Helen Stevens has completed four life-size pictures of past chancellors of Evergreen lodge, Knights of Pythias. They are being framed at Gas Young's store, where they are on exhibition.

There will be a Guild at the residence of Mrs. S. G. Buckner to-night, given by the Keen Missionary Society. Admission 10c. There will be music and recitations rendered by the best talent in the city.

Dr. Hedley's lecture to-morrow night at the Methodist church will be a rare intellectual treat, and those who have heard the other Chautauque lectures will not fail to hear this, the fifth of the series.

The price of coal has been increased to 12 1/2 cents per bushel delivered in lots of as much as fifty bushels. This is a raise of half a cent within the last thirty days and of two or three cents since last fall.

Germany has declared war against the government of the Samoa Islands, and all of the factions have united to fight the common enemy. It remains to be seen what England and America will do now.

Book-keeping, Commercial Arithmetic and Penmanship thoroughly taught at South Kentucky College by an accountant from Goodman's Business College, Nashville. Tenn. Apply to James E. Scobey, Pres.

Herndon & Major, the proprietors of the Grange Warehouse, have moved into their new quarters and are ready for business. No one can afford to come to Clarksville without visiting this greatest tobacco warehouse in the world.—Chronicle.

A large audience should welcome Dr. James H. Hodge at the Methodist Church, Saturday at 7:30 p. m. His lecture, "Sunny Side of Life" promises to be a beautiful and graphic picture. This is the fifth lecture of the Chautauque course and deserves the liberal patronage of the public.

The prohibition election comes off the second day of March, instead of the second Saturday in the month. Consequently there will be no division of the Hopkinsville voting districts until after the election. The vote will be taken only at the two precincts on Main street, as heretofore.

On the first of the year $2,000 of the Hopkinsville Public School bonds were called in. Of the original $20,000 issued eight years ago, all but $3,500 have been paid off. Hopkinsville never made an investment of any kind equal to her public schools, which are the pride of the city and will be entirely paid for in less than half the time allowed for the bonds to mature.

Some unthoughtful persons are in the habit of writing on the walls in the post-office, posting bills or otherwise defacing the property. There is no reason why this should be done in the post-office any more than any business house or private residence, and for the benefit of those who do not know, we will state that any one who defaces property lays himself liable to a fine, and it might be well to be a little cautious in future. The interior of the office will soon be nicely painted, which will very much improve the appearance of things.

Elsewhere in this issue appears a conspicuous advertisement of Sam'l Hodgson, dealer in marble and monumental work, Clarksville, Tenn. Mr. Hodgson carries a large line of finished work and is prepared to furnish, at any time, the finest work in his line to be found in the United States. He has erected several very fine monuments in the cemetery in this city, which are beautiful and elegantly finished. The character of the work put up by him speaks for itself in every case. Mr. F. M. Whitlow, his agent here, has recently taken several orders for fine jobs to be put up early in the spring. It would be well now to place your orders for work in his line for spring delivery, and before so doing it would also be well to call on or write to Mr. Hodgson, or see his agent here, as they will please you and save you money over other houses.

FRUIT DRYING.

A New Industry For Christian County That Would Pay Well.

The fruit evaporating establishments of New York State use 5,000,000 bushels of apples annually producing 30,000,000 pounds of clean white evaporated fruit, worth at the factories $2,000,000. The operatives in these factories number 30,000 men, women and children. The evaporated fruit is shipped to all parts of the civilized world, and is sold in every city and town in the Union. This clean, white fruit flavored article is far superior to the old fashioned dried, husk-fueled tough and insipid dried fruit, which used to be prepared with great labor and with poor results in a culinary sense. Hopkinsville would be a good point for the erection of a fruit evaporator. The soil is the natural home of blackberries, raspberries, strawberries, apples, pears, peaches and grapes of the finest varieties and superior quality yield abundantly. Lumber for boxing is abundant and cheap, and the completion of the Ohio Valley railroad will give distribution to factory products at the cheapest rates to all parts of the country. Instead of being consumers and buyers, our people ought to be producers of this wholesome and popular form of fruit. There is an increasing demand in the foreign countries, of Germany, Great Britain, France and Holland for it, and statistics show that the exports now amount to 4,000,000 pounds annually, besides what is used in home consumption. The hills of North Christian would furnish abundant material for this industry.

Card of Thanks.

We take this method of expressing our gratitude and extending thanks to the people of Hopkinsville, Christian and adjoining counties for the liberal patronage bestowed on us for the past many years, numbering about 28.

We have at all times tried to be courteous and polite, and furthermore have sold you good honest "Hillside" Goods, at the very lowest prices.

We are about to embark in a new undertaking, viz. Clothing, Boots and Shoes and we solicit your patronage. It shall be our endeavor in the future, as in the past, "to strive to please." You will always find our house headquarters for the best Clothing, Furnishing Goods, Hats, Boots and Shoes at the lowest prices.

In retiring from the Dry Goods business, we place on sale the balance of our stock, at just half of former prices.

Every dollar's worth must be closed out, at once, to make room for a Big Stock of Clothing, Boots and Shoes, to arrive in Ten Days. Remember, Every Price Cut just Half. For instance, an article sold for $75c, sells now for 37 1/2c, &c.

Call early to secure choice of stock. Time is limited. Again thanking you and all for past favors we solicit at least a portion of your patronage, in our New Enterprise.

Very Respectfully,
M. Frankel & Son's.

Due notice will be given of our Grand opening of the New Enterprise. Watch the P-pers for it.

M. Frankel & Son's.

An Elegant Substitute.

For oils, salts, pills, and all kinds of bitter, nauseous medicines, is the very agreeable liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Fig. Recommended by leading Physicians. Manufactured only by the California Fig Syrup Company. For sale in 50 cents and $1.00 bottles.

DEATHS.

Collie H. Roberts, Esq., died at his home near Oak Grove, on the 29th inst., aged 70 years. He had been in failing health for two years. He was born in Montgomery county, Tenn., and began life as a poor boy and succeeded in winning a place of honor among his fellowmen. He was a church member and a man for many years. He leaves a wife and several children. The remains were buried at the Pariah graveyard, in this county.

Nathaniel Cotton, a patient at the Asylum, died Sunday. He was a very old man and had been an inmate of the Asylum for thirty years. He was from Nelson county.

Miss Donie Harned, of the Mount Vernon district, died a few days ago.

Lewis L. Salmon, formerly of Earlington, died at his home at Edgefield, Tenn., a few days ago, after a protracted illness. He was a native of this county and his remains were brought to Kelly for interment.

Elijah Simmons, aged 70 years, a former resident of Hopkinsville, died at Pembroke at 2 o'clock Thursday morning. He had been sick only about a week.

THE wife of Henry Giles, living on Jessup Avenue, died Tuesday night of "Saint Vitus Dance."

Letitia Bell, a colored woman, died near Beverly, Wednesday night.

Henry M. Frankel and Joseph M. Frankel have formed the firm of M. Frankel & Son's, which will continue to do business at the former stand of the "Old Reliable," in the Board building. The corner room is now being re-papered and fitted up especially for a clothing and gent's furnishing store and will be ready for occupancy early in this month. The adjoining room heretofore used for clothing will be fitted up for a shoe store and a full and complete stock of shoes, etc., will be opened to the public on or before March 1st. The new firm will, after closing out the present stock, discontinue the dry goods department of their business. In order to do this, they are now offering goods at greatly reduced prices, having moved their dry goods stock into the clothing store while the corner room is undergoing repairs.

MATRIMONIAL.

Dr. Clarence Anderson, of Princeton and Miss Pocahontas Wall, of Wallonia, Trigg county, were married at the latter place yesterday. This is the happy culmination of a love affair that began when they were both school children in this city, several years ago.

There seems to be an inexplicable stagnation in the matrimonial market. If there are any weddings on the tapis the news is being kept very quiet.

J. W. Pendleton and Jennie Smith are the only white couple licensed to wed this week. They were granted papers Monday.

A colored couple named Lee Rawlin and Charlotte Gordon, were licensed to wed yesterday and Judge Winfree tied the nuptial knot in his office.

SPECIAL LOCALS.

HOW IS THIS? CUT JUST HALF.

Our entire stock at just half former prices. This includes every article in our Dry Goods and Notions. Sale begins Friday Feb. 1st, and continues until all the goods are sold. Come early to secure choice of stock.

M. Frankel & Son's.

NOW IS THE TIME

To have your carriages and buggies put in good repair, for Spring and summer use. The best and cheapest place is at the Blumenstiel O'ge. Co.

RED FRONT.

A nice, fresh, and well assorted stock of staple and fancy Groceries, always on hand at the Red Front. Your trade solicited, satisfaction guaranteed.

Richardson & Green.

Our delivery wagon calls for and delivers Laundry twice every week. If you will leave word at our office or drop a postal we will call for Laundry and deliver it anywhere in City limits.

FRIDAY FEB. 1st '89.

We have inaugurated a Half Price Sale to clear out our stock of Dry Goods, Notions &c. Don't fail to be on hand Friday Feb. 1st. M. Frankel & Son's.

AT LAST!

Is the name of the story written for the Progressive Age by E. A. Moody, but we have AT LAST secured the services of a first-class laundryman with 17 years experience, which will guarantee you to get good washing.

T. L. METCALFE.

Sweet and Irish potatoes, cabbage, onions and everything usually kept in the grocery line, at the Red Front.

Hopkinsville Steam Laundry is under the management of an experienced laundry man who ran a Laundry for 17 years in one of our largest cities.

If You Want

A new Buggy or carriage, call on us. We will give you the best and the cheapest.

Blumenstiel O'ge. Co.

Time Is Almost Up.

Only ten days to close out balance of stock, we have therefore stuck the knife deep and cut them just in Half. Our entire stock at just Half former Prices.

M. Frankel & Son's.

FOR SALE CHEAP

One young male 16 hands high six years old. Saddle and fine roadster. Medium sized six years old. Call at once. C. W. Metcalfe.

TEA.

We have just received an invoice of very fine Tea, try it Red Front.

Richardson & Green.

Patrons Home Industries and help to build up Home enterprises by patronizing the Hopkinsville Steam Laundry. You do this.

SPECIAL LOCALS.

FARMERS!

I can do your repairing and furnish you with new wagons and plows at prices that will suit you. Call on me at my new shop on 17th street, just above Poulke's coal yard.

J. J. AUSTIN.

100

Men's, Boy's, and Children's Overcoats that positively must be sold. If you have any thought of buying you can't afford to miss seeing us.

J. H. Anderson & Co.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castor.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castor.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castor.

When she had Children, she gave them Castor.

Christian Circuit Court.

CHARLES W. DICKER, vs. EXPARTE.

This day came the petitioners, Charles W. Dicker and Annie E. Dicker, his wife, and filed their petition in the office of the Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, praying that the Court would by decree empower the said Annie E. Dicker to use, or to sell and convey for her own benefit any property she may now own or hereafter acquire, free from the claims or debts of her husband, and to trade in her own name, and to dispose of her property by will or deed. It is ordered that a copy of this order be published in the Hopkinsville Republican, a newspaper published in Hopkinsville, Kentucky, the length of time prescribed by law.

Given under my hand, as Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, this 29th day of January, 1889.

CYRUS M. BROWN, Clerk.

A copy. Atty. Cyrus M. Brown, Clerk. Joe McCarroll, Attorney.

Christian Circuit Court.

ANDREW HALL, vs. EXPARTE.

This day came the petitioners, Andrew Hall and Emma Hall, his wife, and filed their petition in the office of the Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, praying that the Court would by decree empower the said Emma Hall to use, or to sell and convey for her own benefit any property she may now own or hereafter acquire, free from the claims or debts of her husband, and to trade in her own name, and to dispose of her property by will or deed. It is ordered that a copy of this order be published in the Hopkinsville Republican, a newspaper published in Hopkinsville, Kentucky, the length of time prescribed by law.

Given under my hand, as Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, this 29th day of January, 1889.

CYRUS M. BROWN, Clerk.

A copy. Atty. Cyrus M. Brown, Clerk. Joe McCarroll, Attorney.

Christian Circuit Court.

ANDREW HALL, vs. EXPARTE.

This day came the petitioners, Andrew Hall and Emma Hall, his wife, and filed their petition in the office of the Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, praying that the Court would by decree empower the said Emma Hall to use, or to sell and convey for her own benefit any property she may now own or hereafter acquire, free from the claims or debts of her husband, and to trade in her own name, and to dispose of her property by will or deed. It is ordered that a copy of this order be published in the Hopkinsville Republican, a newspaper published in Hopkinsville, Kentucky, the length of time prescribed by law.

Given under my hand, as Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, this 29th day of January, 1889.

CYRUS M. BROWN, Clerk.

A copy. Atty. Cyrus M. Brown, Clerk. Joe McCarroll, Attorney.

Christian Circuit Court.

ANDREW HALL, vs. EXPARTE.

This day came the petitioners, Andrew Hall and Emma Hall, his wife, and filed their petition in the office of the Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, praying that the Court would by decree empower the said Emma Hall to use, or to sell and convey for her own benefit any property she may now own or hereafter acquire, free from the claims or debts of her husband, and to trade in her own name, and to dispose of her property by will or deed. It is ordered that a copy of this order be published in the Hopkinsville Republican, a newspaper published in Hopkinsville, Kentucky, the length of time prescribed by law.

Given under my hand, as Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, this 29th day of January, 1889.

CYRUS M. BROWN, Clerk.

A copy. Atty. Cyrus M. Brown, Clerk. Joe McCarroll, Attorney.

Christian Circuit Court.

ANDREW HALL, vs. EXPARTE.

This day came the petitioners, Andrew Hall and Emma Hall, his wife, and filed their petition in the office of the Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, praying that the Court would by decree empower the said Emma Hall to use, or to sell and convey for her own benefit any property she may now own or hereafter acquire, free from the claims or debts of her husband, and to trade in her own name, and to dispose of her property by will or deed. It is ordered that a copy of this order be published in the Hopkinsville Republican, a newspaper published in Hopkinsville, Kentucky, the length of time prescribed by law.

Given under my hand, as Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, this 29th day of January, 1889.

CYRUS M. BROWN, Clerk.

A copy. Atty. Cyrus M. Brown, Clerk. Joe McCarroll, Attorney.

Christian Circuit Court.

ANDREW HALL, vs. EXPARTE.

This day came the petitioners, Andrew Hall and Emma Hall, his wife, and filed their petition in the office of the Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, praying that the Court would by decree empower the said Emma Hall to use, or to sell and convey for her own benefit any property she may now own or hereafter acquire, free from the claims or debts of her husband, and to trade in her own name, and to dispose of her property by will or deed. It is ordered that a copy of this order be published in the Hopkinsville Republican, a newspaper published in Hopkinsville, Kentucky, the length of time prescribed by law.

Given under my hand, as Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, this 29th day of January, 1889.

CYRUS M. BROWN, Clerk.

A copy. Atty. Cyrus M. Brown, Clerk. Joe McCarroll, Attorney.

Christian Circuit Court.

ANDREW HALL, vs. EXPARTE.

This day came the petitioners, Andrew Hall and Emma Hall, his wife, and filed their petition in the office of the Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, praying that the Court would by decree empower the said Emma Hall to use, or to sell and convey for her own benefit any property she may now own or hereafter acquire, free from the claims or debts of her husband, and to trade in her own name, and to dispose of her property by will or deed. It is ordered that a copy of this order be published in the Hopkinsville Republican, a newspaper published in Hopkinsville, Kentucky, the length of time prescribed by law.

Given under my hand, as Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, this 29th day of January, 1889.

CYRUS M. BROWN, Clerk.

A copy. Atty. Cyrus M. Brown, Clerk. Joe McCarroll, Attorney.

Christian Circuit Court.

ANDREW HALL, vs. EXPARTE.

This day came the petitioners, Andrew Hall and Emma Hall, his wife, and filed their petition in the office of the Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, praying that the Court would by decree empower the said Emma Hall to use, or to sell and convey for her own benefit any property she may now own or hereafter acquire, free from the claims or debts of her husband, and to trade in her own name, and to dispose of her property by will or deed. It is ordered that a copy of this order be published in the Hopkinsville Republican, a newspaper published in Hopkinsville, Kentucky, the length of time prescribed by law.

Given under my hand, as Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, this 29th day of January, 1889.

CYRUS M. BROWN, Clerk.

A copy. Atty. Cyrus M. Brown, Clerk. Joe McCarroll, Attorney.

Christian Circuit Court.

ANDREW HALL, vs. EXPARTE.

This day came the petitioners, Andrew Hall and Emma Hall, his wife, and filed their petition in the office of the Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, praying that the Court would by decree empower the said Emma Hall to use, or to sell and convey for her own benefit any property she may now own or hereafter acquire, free from the claims or debts of her husband, and to trade in her own name, and to dispose of her property by will or deed. It is ordered that a copy of this order be published in the Hopkinsville Republican, a newspaper published in Hopkinsville, Kentucky, the length of time prescribed by law.

Given under my hand, as Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, this 29th day of January, 1889.

CYRUS M. BROWN, Clerk.

A copy. Atty. Cyrus M. Brown, Clerk. Joe McCarroll, Attorney.

Christian Circuit Court.

ANDREW HALL, vs. EXPARTE.

This day came the petitioners, Andrew Hall and Emma Hall, his wife, and filed their petition in the office of the Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, praying that the Court would by decree empower the said Emma Hall to use, or to sell and convey for her own benefit any property she may now own or hereafter acquire, free from the claims or debts of her husband, and to trade in her own name, and to dispose of her property by will or deed. It is ordered that a copy of this order be published in the Hopkinsville Republican, a newspaper published in Hopkinsville, Kentucky, the length of time prescribed by law.

Given under my hand, as Clerk of the Christian Circuit Court, this 29th day of January, 1889.

CYRUS M. BROWN, Clerk.

A copy. Atty. Cyrus M. Brown, Clerk. Joe McCarroll, Attorney.

Christian Circuit Court.

ANDREW HALL, vs. EXPARTE.